OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

Licensed Insurance Agent

Ms. Schaeffer maintains an insurance license, as required by law, to give advice on the benefits and needs of insurance, a component of financial planning. Because she is a properly licensed insurance agent and could earn commissions from the sale of insurance products, there is a potential conflict of interest that we want to bring to your attention. Ms. Schaeffer has a fiduciary responsibility to act in your best interest and recommending that you purchase an insurance product in which she can earn a commission creates a situation of divided loyalty, potentially making the advice less objective and possibly disadvantageous to you.

In an effort to manage this conflict, Ms. Schaeffer does not accept any insurance commissions and will refer you to an independent insurance broker for specific advice when insurance products are warranted. Furthermore, you should keep in mind that you are under no obligation to accept the recommendation to purchase insurance products, nor are you obligated to work with the referred agent. You are free to choose the insurance agency, agent and company for your purchase of insurance. Note that if you do elect to purchase an insurance product, regardless of where or from whom you purchased it, that person will be entitled to earn a commission.

In addition, there are also potential conflicts of interest when Ms. Schaeffer suggests the need for outside consultations and professional services (i.e. attorneys, accountants, benefit specialists, etc.) to implement certain aspects of the financial plan. Even though she does not share in any fees earned by the outside professionals to whom you might be referred, it does create an incentive for her to refer your business to only those entities that, in turn, refer prospective clients to her. There is a potential for divided loyalty and the objectivity of the advice could be compromised.

Therefore, to help you understand the choices and risks you have in receiving financial planning advice along with other investment recommendations, the following disclosure is provided to assist you with your decisions:

- You are under no obligation to work with outside professionals recommended by Ms. Schaeffer. You are free to choose any outside professional to implement the recommendations made from her financial planning advice. Furthermore, you are under no obligation to implement any of the financial planning recommendations.

For more information about other potential conflicts of interest, see our Disclosure Brochure, Item 10, "Other Financial Industry Activities & Affiliations" and Item 14, "Client Referrals & Other Compensation". Notwithstanding such potential conflicts of interest, we strive to act in your best interest and ensure disclosure is properly made to you in compliance with the Investment Advisor Act of 1940, Rule 275.206.

ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

Ms. Schaeffer does not receive any economic benefit, incentives, sales awards, prizes or bonuses that are based on the number or amount of sales, client referrals, or from opening new accounts.
